West Point Social.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] WEST POINT, VA., April 6.-On Thursday night the second and third floors of the Terminal were filled with guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Guvernator, to remain over Sunday.

A special german was tendered the guests on Thursday evening, and the Kesnich Orchestra, of Richmond, fur-nished the music for the occasion.

Among the guests were several who will spend the summer here with their ting William since Tuesday and a reat deal of business has been disosed of. The case of Garrett against datewood, that a few weeks ago was reversed by the Court of Appeals and ont back to the Circuit Court on acdount of error, was taken up. The case argued Thursday and sustained which the plaintiff excepted, but obtained leave to amend at rules. Miss Mattie Kate Kerr, who was called home by the extreme illness

Miss Mattie Kate Kerr, who was railed home by the extreme illness of her mether at King and Queen Courthouse a week or two ago, left Friday for Lake Heron, Minn., where she was principal of a large school. Her 'sister, Miss Eunice Kerr, was married on Wednesday at 1 o'clock at the home of her mother and father, to Mr. Ernest Eubank, of Richmond.

The bridal party at once set out for Sweet Hall, and there took the train for West Point, where they went on the Baitimore boat for a Northern trip of several days. They will reside in Richmond. Rev. J. W. Hart performed the marriage ceremony.

At 4 o'clock on Wednesday Mr. William Walker, of Walkerton, King and Queen county, was married to Miss Susie McGeorge, of West Point, at the home of her parents. Many of her immediate relatives were present at the home of her parents. Many of her immediate relatives were present at the marriage, at which Rev. Alexander Fleet, of Bruington, officiated. The happy couple at once left by way of Baitimore for an extended trip to Northern cities.

Mrs. Kate Gibson and Miss Kate Gary left on Thursday for Richmond, as did Mrs. W. P. Bray, of Wakema; after attending the wedding of Miss McGeorge.

Mr. Scott Broaddus, who is with his

McGeorge.

Mr. Scott Broaddus, who is with his father owner of the West Point Weekly News, and for a long time associated in the official work of the paper, left this week for Milton, W. Va. where he has accepted a position with Johnson & Briggs, railroad contractors. Mr. C. C. Hear, of the Romancoke

Mr. C. C. Hoar, of the Romancoke Club, left Wednesday for Presque Isle, Me., where his family now resides.
Mr. J. T. Dansey bought at auction this week the Liberty Hall farm, formerly owned by Mr. J. S. Robinson. He paid for the farm $2,400.

Mrs. T. A. Honley and Miss Bessie Nunn, of King William, spent Easter with friends in town.

The post-office department here has reduced the price of lock-boxes. The people are very much delighted that something can be had at a reduced price, and they hope this is an earnest of that which is to follow.

Mrs. J. Powell Garland and ner lew spent a day or two with her brother, mpent a day or two with her brother, Dr. George W. Richardson, this week, Miss Kitty Livingstone, of Balti-rrore, is the guest of Miss Marie Har-grave.

Mrs. W. M. B. Williams, from Cape
Charles, is here on a visit to her father and her sisters.

Misses Mary Denmead and Olive

Gault have returned from a very de-lightful visit to the Misses Edwards of Baltimore. Misses Frances Hudson and Lucile

Tunstall visited the latter's parents, a

Tunstall, this week.

Mrs. N. Tunstall spent several days with Mrs. W. R. Broaddus recently.

Miss Walter Gregory, of Elsing Green, visited Miss Myrtle Corr also. rner Seventh and C Streets. Work on the roads going out from the town is progressing, and the indications are that there will be good roads the rest of this year.

Mrs. Caspers, who was so seriously burned a week ago just above West Point while trying to save her furniture in a burning house, is alive, but

A large crowd attended the funeral of Mrs. A. F. Hargrave at the Episop-ial Church on Thursday, Rev. G. D. Christian officiating.

Mrs. H. I. Lewis has returned from a delightful visit to friends in Norfolk.

Mrs. William Hoskins, from Newport
News, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Mat-m shade better.

Mrs. W. H. Bell, who lives on her and is now employed in the clerk's office of the Circuit Court for this county temporarily.

The Philomathean Club was entertained at the home of Mrs. J. W. West at its last meeting. Burns was the author discussed, as follows: "Biographical Sketch." Judge J. F. West; "Burns as a Poet," Mrs. W. V. Martin; "A Day in Ayeshire," Rev. W. F. Dunaway, Jr.; reading, "Bruce at Bannockburn," Mrs. Lucy A Chappell; reading, "Highland Mary," Mrs. J. F. May. The music was unusually entertaining. Messrs. J. E. Wilcox, C. S. Parsons and 22. N. Burt will in a few days begin work on a stave plant to be located in Waverly. The plant will be in operation by the 1st of May. Mrs. R. T. West is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. E. West, of Suffolk. Mrs. H. E. Rountree is on an extended visit to her parents in Halifax county, Va. Mr. R. O. Rogers, of the Medical College of Virginia, visited friends in this community a few days ago. Mr. Rouben Clark, formerly enaployed by Mr. J. B. Hancock, has accepted a position in Rounoke, and has left for that city.

Mr. H. A. Gray, of Gray, Va., was in town several days during the past week.

Quite an interesting program was week.

Quite an interesting program was rendered last Friday evening at the frown Hall by the young ladies of the Waverly Home School, under their musical instructor, Mrs. J. F. May,

The House That "Beats Them All"

Put $10 Into Your Spring Suit-

No more, no less-for you get a $20 Suit from us for only $10.

There is no question about it, you get

The Quality, The Style, The Fit for

$10

There are all styles, all sizes and fabrics. Some specials are BLUE AND BLACK SERGES, PLAID SUITS AND WORSTEDS.

No middleman's profits. They are built in our own clean factories.

$6 Trousers, $3

Serges and unfinished worsteds, peg legs, neatly lined. The right kind, $3.00.

Mr. Car Man!

It's here-a handsome uniform-a dandy for only

Special and prompt attention given to all mail or-ders. Write us. Call to see American Clothing Stores Company, 418 E. Broad St.

Fork Union Social.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

honored students at the academy for several seasons.

Mr. Martin Hiden medical student of the University of Virginia, has retirmed after attending the alumni reception of the scademy and visit to friends.

Miss Lucy Lee Jones, of Caryshrook, has returned after pleasant trips North and to Eastern Virginia.

Mr. Frank W. Snead and son, of Clarksville, Va., where they are engaged WILLIAMSBURG, VA., April 6.—A delightful german was given by Miss Annie Galt in the Direkson Bank Hail Monday night. A large crowd of dancers was present, and the german was very muce enjoyed. Spleand muste was furnished by the Williamsburg orchestra. Dancing began at 3 o'clock and lasted until 2. Refreshments were served at 12 o'clock.

The following were present at the german; Misses Mary and Annie Galt, Lieutenant and Mrs. Galt, Miss Edna Brooks, Misses Agnes and Pinkle Morecock, Miss Bottle Galt, Miss Emily Christian, Miss Lota Goodwin, of Richmond; Miss Sue Hundley, Misses Julia and Lizzle Tyler, Miss Virginia Braithwaite, Misses Garnett and Florence Sweeney, Miss Bottle Foster, Miss Jetta Thorpe, Miss Lucille Foster, Miss Jetta Thorpe, Miss Annie Ruffin, Miss Harrison, Misses Lucy and Mab Stubbs, Mrs. D. Cole and Mrs. J. B. Spencer and G. A. Dovell. Bowyer Campbell, F. G. Butler, R. B. Dade, C. G. Hankins, Dr. J. B. Spencer, H. R. Ethelridge, J. S. White, W. W. and T. P. Trigg, J. T. Christian, J. H. Bowen, C. M. Barnes, Dr. J. S. Wilson, J. T. Shanks, F. R. Sayage, Al, and Thomas Murphy, J. T. Land, Cyrus Hankins, George Durfey, Peachey Spencer, H. II. Marsden, W. E. Roach and G. R. Arnold.

While driving a few days age, Mrs.

George Durfey, Peachey Spencer, H. H.
Marsden, W. E. Ronch and C. R. Arnold.

While driving a few days ago, Mrs.
Maddox and little Cabell Phillips were thrown from the buggy and painfully but not seriously hurt. Mrs. Maddox is visiting here at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Harry Phillips, Mrs. Eugene Irvine, of Hampton, has been spending the week at the home of her brother, Mr. N. S. Henley.
Miss Katherine Geddy, after spending the Easter holidays with her parents here, has returned to Petersburg to resume her studies at the Southern Female Institute.

Mrs. R. E. Slaughter, of Richmond, was a pleasant visitor at the Rome of Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Phillips for several days during the past week.

Miss Leta Goodwin, of Richmond, is spending some time with her brother,
Rev. W. A. R. Goodwin,
Miss Mackle Young, of Hampton, spent some days with friends here
last week.

Mrs. Herbert C. Lightfoot has been spending the week with her mother, Mrs. J. L. Mercer.

Mrs. Alex Tyler and Miss Tyler, of East Hampton, N. Y., spent several days last week at the home of President Lyon G. Tyler.

Dr. Tyler and Mayor Warburton have been spending the week at "Milton-onthe-James."

Misses Julia and Lizzle Tyler left Tuesday for Elebannad the News.

Miss Eunice Lucas has so far recovered from her savere illness as to accompany her sister. Mrs. Graves, to her home in Newport News.

Dr. Mary D. Lowell and Miss Ellie Chandler, of Boston, are visiting Miss Emily Christian.

Misses Mary and Elizabeth Galt, of Baltimore, are visiting Miss Annie Galt.

Galt.

Mrs. C. T. King and children, who have been visiting Mrs. W. L. Schonck at her home near Caktree, have returned to their home in Richmond.

Mr. B. H. Ewan, Jr., of Newport News, seent last week with his father at Oaktree.

BEDFORD CITY

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

BEDFORD CITY, VA., April 6.—The first social event after the Lenten abstinance was a Colonial entertainment Thursday afternoon, given by Mrs. T. D. Berry in honor of the Thursday Club and a large number of special guests at her hospitable home on College Street The hall and spacious parlor were decorated by beautiful blooming piants and boughs of the Japan pear, with its rich, red blossoms, the daylight was excluded, and many stars of twinkling candles illuminated softly the bewitching scene.

The hostess, ladies of the club and the young ladies who participated in the music, zerving refreshments, etc., were costumed in Coionial style, the quaint dress, powdered har, old-fisshloned jewelry, etc., were exceedingly becoming, and the entire effect was one

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

FORK UNION, VA. April E.—Miss Helen K. Spain, of the academy your department, has returned after a brief visit to friends in Konrville, Tenn.
Dr. and Mrs. W. E. Hatcher left a few days ago to visit their children, Mrs. C.
L. DeMott, of Lynchburg, and to Dr.
Eldridge B. Hatcher, of Baltimore, While away Dr. Hatcher, will fill an engagement to deliver three lectures before the Theological Seminary of Colgate University in Hamilton, New York.

Mrs. Fielding Poindexter is visiting friends in Washington city.

Ar Fong Yeung and Davidson, of Richmond College, recently paid a visit to their friends in Fork Union. They were bunored students at the academy for several seastons.

Mr. Martin Hiden, medical student of clusion of which delicious refreshments

Williamsburg Social.

Misses Julia and Lizzie Tyler left Tuesday for Richmond to attend the marriage of Miss Edith Merrill. Miss Elizabeth Morecock spent Easter with Mrs. Edloe Morecock in Newport niture and Metal Beds here, for we are particular to keep our stock strictly up to date. Our new Spring assortments are fascinatingly complete, and we have been unusually successful in securing big values. We show every good class of Furniture for every purpose.

BEDFORD CITY

Our stock of Refrigerators, Go-Carts and Gas Ranges i also complete, and contains all sizes and styles in thoroughly

We will arrange the terms to suit your convenience.

This 3 Piece Suite Reduced from $55 to $42.50

A well-built Suite, with highly polished frames and covered in imported verona. Excellent value at original price.

Good Refrigerators At Low Prices We are able to offer you exceptionally good values in Refrigerators. We handle several makes, and they are all first-class goods and moderately priced. You can take our word for it that whatever one you select. from our stock will give you absolutely satisfactory service, and will be economical in the use of ice.

The Superb and Erie

We're Cutting Prices on Mattings.

Our special buying facilities and big direct importations have given us the opportunity to offer some unusual values in good grades of Matting.

Heavy China Matting, reg. 25c value...191/2c Heavy China Matting, reg. 27c value...201/2c Heavy China Matting, reg. 30c value....23c Fine Japan Matting, reg. 37c value....27c

Heavy China Matting, reg. 35c value....26c

Rare Values in Women's Wear

VERY STYLISH LADIES' SPRING TAILOR-MADE SUITS, made of blue, black and gray Panama; mannish mixtures in light and dark stripes and checks; the styles are Eton and pony effects, with vest effect of fancy slik braid and buttons; $24.98 value. Special $16.98 Monday HANDSOME ALL-WOOL PANAMA SUITS, in light

PETTIT & COMPANY.

Cor. Foushee and Broad Sts.

Fredericksburg Social.

FREDERICKSBURG, VA., April 6 .-The week, owing to the fact that it fol-owed Easter, has been more than usually lively. Many pleasant programs which had been planned for Easter Monday,

$10.75 for this $15 Dresser, solid oak, nicely fin-had been planned for Easter Monday, however, were abandoned, on account of the cold weather prevailing at that time Notwithstanding the weather, there were Easter egg hunts, fishing parties and short excursion trips.

The egg hunt held on the grounds of Mr. J. P. Rowe's residence by the ladier of the Beptist Church was larrely attended and highly successful. The proceeds were for the benefit of the missionary societies of the church, and quit a snug sum was realized. Another Easter egg hunt was given on Tuesday afternoon by the Junior Auxiliary of St. Geotge's Episcopal Church, on the grounds News, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Med.

Mrs. Joseph Wilkinson, who is till at a wery forcicle and fastering Gelice. Mrs. Joseph Wilkinson, who is it is a wery forcicle and fastering Gelice. An eage turn was given Tuesday after the Protestant Hospital in Nortolk, is a conference among farmers is calculated for sent in such improve the authority of the first and a conference among farmers is calculated for sent in such improve the calculation of the first and a conference among farmers is calculated for sent in such improve the form of the first and a conference among farmers is calculated for sent in such improve the form of the form of the form of the first and a conference among farmers is calculated for sent in such improve the form of t

Rev. D. F. Coleman, of Manchester, was here this week.

Mrs. Thomas Wallace, who has been visiting Mr. P. V. D. Conway and family, has returned to her home in Stafford conty.

Miss Fairfax Proudfit, of Memphis.

Miss Fairfax Proudfit, of Memphis.

Tenn., a student at Vassar College, is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Kalmbach.

Mayor T. P. Wallace is visiting his brother in Culpeper county.

Miss Fannie Horne, of Richmond, is the guest of her nephew. Rev. R. Aubrey Williams, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Rosebro and child.

of Richmond, visited relatives here this week.

of Richmond, visited relatives here this week.

Dr. Theodore Hough, of Boston, who has been visiting his relatives here, has returned home.

Mr. Francis Rowe, of Richmond, was here this week, visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Rowe.

Miss Flora Mason is a guest of friends at Chapel Hill, N. C.

Miss Flora Mason is a guest of friends at the Peabody institute. In Baltimore, at the Peabody institute. In Baltimore, were here this week visiting relatives, Miss Susio B. Jeffries, of Warrenton, is a guest of Miss Agnos Chewnin.

Mrs. and Mrs. Fred Pilcher, of Petersburg, Miss Salile Harris and Miss Annie I. Willis of Culpeper country, were mests this week of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Willis, Mrs. M. L. Chesley and daughter, Miss Mrs. M. L. Chesley and daughter, Miss Mamie, have returned from a visit, to Alexandria.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Moffett King, of Richmond, visited relatives here this week.

Miss Viola Bennett, of Richmond, was in the city this week, visiting the Misser Barber.

Mr. Henry McClelland, of Texas, who has been a guest of Judge and Mrs. A. T. Embrey, has returned to the Cassadilla School, in Pennsylvania.

Mrs. Maurice Hirsh has returned from a visit to relatives in Springfield, Mo. Mrs. W. H. Mason and children, of Richmond, were here this week, visiting her purents, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Bozel.

Miss Frances Isaac, of Baltimore, 12 the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. Ulman.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

The House that

POOD LAW AND DEUG ACTS. THE PHIL. G. KELLY CO., Inc. LOOK FOR THIS STAMP Tou'll find it on all our goods. It means Uncle Sam guarantees GOODS ARE PURE AND STRAIGHT. You buy direct when you buy us. We are wholesale distributors to the consumer. All goods name low are shipped in neat, plain packages, express charges PREPAID to point at price named, under our full guarantee. Money cheerfully ref if goods are not entirely satisfactory. Special princes on large orders for booklet, price-list and full information. Prompt city delivery, booklet, price-list and full information.

4 Quarts.

Westover (best the world over). $3 10
El Maizo (Old Corn Whiskey)... 2 6
Donald Kenny Mait Whiskey... 8 23
Blue Ridge (Va. Mountain)... 4 00
Huron filter Rye (bottied in bond) 3 15
Dr. Le Barron's Buchu Gin.... 8 40 Dr. Le Barrou's Buend Olling Street, and Gallon 5-year-old Kontucky Rye.

Gallon 5-year-old Ko. C. Corn
Gallon 4-year-old Apple Brandy.

Gallon 4-year-old Peach Brandy.

Gallon Holland Gin.

Cett up in Stone Jug and safely packed in plain case.

Cett up in Stone Jug and safely packed in plain case.

The 8 and 18 quart price provails on mixed orders.
Add 50 cents for shipments west of Mississippi River. Treats You Right.

Add 50 cents for shipments West

Importers, Distillers
and Distributors of Fine Liquors,

MAIL ORDERS PROMPTLY FILLED.

Local and Long Distance Phones 1338.

Hair on Face HECK AND ARMS

DeMiracle

BOOKLET FREE in State, sealest envelope by DO MALLE FRANKAL CO., 1932 Paris Area, S. Y. Remarcher, university of a contact and a contact a co

The Cohen Company.